STABBED BY A YOUTH TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD

Dreadful Deed of a Street Gamin in City of New Orleans.

EJECTED SOME BOYS.

One of the Proprietors of an Establishment Lost His Life in an Effort to Get Rid of Boisterous Juveniles.

New Orleans, Jan. 26.—A youthful murderer, who escaped and is unknown, stabbed sixteen-year-old Lee Weathers to death in the Mutoscope parlors on Camp street during Sunday night.

The murderer was one of a party of street gamins who entered the parlors. They acted boisterously and Weathers was forced to eject them. He had just pushed the last one of them onto the sidewalk when one of the crowd drew a knife and drove it into his breast in the presence of Weathers' two brothers and about twenty people.

In the confusion the murderer and his gang escaped. Weathers died in an hour. The police have gathered in a score of well known juveniles in the hope of identifying the murderer. The Weathers boys came here recently from High Shoals, Ala., where their father is a physician of prominence.

IRATE IOWANS.

Very Indignant Over the Arrest of Parties Seizing Coal.

Strathford, Ia., Jan. 26.—Strathford citizens are indignant over the arrest of over thirty persons for holding up a Northwestern coal train Sunday and seizing several cars of fuel. But little coal has been shipped to Strathford for weeks, and a famine existed.

When a train stopped for water the news spread like wild fire, and soon a mob of 500 persons with wagons, baskets and coal scuttles were at the tracks. A car was broken into and the citizens eagerly helped themselves. When the raid was over only a few tons remained in the cars. The railroad officials notified the sheriff at Webster City, who made the arrests. The excitement is intense, and trouble is expected when the prisoners are brought to trial. All were granted bail.

DOBLIN RETRACTS.

Says That the Bribery Charge He Made Against Quigg Was Not True.

Washington, Jan. 26.—During the course of the Lessler bribery charge investigation Mr. Rogers, appearing as an attorney for Phillip Doblin, announced to the committee that Doblin desired to make a statement, and added that Doblin had told him some parts of his testimony were true and some parts untrue. This came as a surprise. After some discussion it was decided to have Doblin called and state just what parts of the statement which he made on the stand Saturday were true and what was not true. Doblin proceeded to tell of his coming to Washington and of his appearance before the committee. He said when he came to Washington to appear before the full committee he decided to make the statement he did. "I now retract," he said, "every word in which I said Mr. Quigg tendered me any bribe in any way."

Castro's Forces Defeated.

New York, Jan. 26.—President Castro's troops have been defeated by the Venezuelan revolutionists in an important battle about forty miles west of Puerto Cabello, says a dispatch to the Herald. Scattered bodies of the defeated government soldiers are arriving in Puerto Cabello. Their commanding general was captured by the revolutionists.

Denver, Jan. 26.—The sub-committee of the Democratic state central committee have arranged for a banquet at the Brown Palace hotel Wednesday night to be tendered Senator Teller. Preceding the banquet a public reception to the senator will be held in the rotunda of the Brown Palace hotel.

Singular Death of a Little Girl.

New York, Jan. 26.—The four-year-old girl of Edward Long picked up a small electric lamp and battery. The child touched the button and the little bulb glowed. She put the bulb in her mouth. It broke off and slipped down her throat. She was taken to a hospital and an operation performed, but the little one died.

House of Representatives Eulogies Departed Members.

SEVERAL SPEECHES.

The Life and Public Services of the Late Representatives Sheppard and DeGraffenreid and Russell Remembered.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house Sunday inaugurated the experiment of holding memorial services for deceased members upon the Sabbath. It will be followed hereafter during this session and probably will become the general practice in the house in the future. Heretofore except on very rare occasions, the house has broken in on its legislative work Friday and Saturday to listen to eulogies on the deceased, but the time has seldom been propitious, and latterly the practice has been meeting with growing disfavor. On account of the pressure of public business at this session it was decided to hold those memorial sessions on Sunday, and during the course of their eulogies several members took occasion to voice their commendation, of the innovation and to express their opinion that it should be followed in the future.

At the session tributes were paid to the life and public services of the late Representatives Russell, of Connecticut, and Sheppard and DeGraffenreid of Texas, each of whom died during the congressional recess. The attendance in the galleries was quite large, and there was numerous assemblage of friends of the deceased members on the floor. The following members paid tribute to the memory of Mr. Russell: Messrs. Brandegee, Connecticut; Capron, Rhode Island; Hill, Connecticut; Henry, Connecticut; Payne, New York; McClellan, New York; Dalzell, Pennsylvania; Grosvenor, Ohio, and McCall, Massachusetts. Those who eulogized Mr. Sheppard were: Messrs. Henry, Texas; Brantley, Georgia; Ball, Texas; Randall, Texas; Burleson, Texas, and Feely, Illinois. Those who eulogized Mr. DeGraffenreid were Messrs. Russell, Texas, Stephens, Texas, and Kleberg, Texas.

At 2:55, as a further mark of respect, the house adjourned.

Symptoms of Hydrophobia.

Texarkana, Tex., Jan. 26.—The little 5-year-old daughter of C. C. Scott on Rose Hill was bitten by a dog a few days ago. The wound was promptly cauterized by a physician and the child seemingly getting along all right until Saturday. Then a high fever set in and it is believed some symptoms of hydrophobia have developed. The child is reported as being in a precarious condition.

New Depot.

San Antonio, Jan. 26.—The new $115,000 passenger station of the Southern Pacific railway at this place has been completed and train service into and out of it will be inaugurated Saturday, the 31st instant, with formal ceremonies participated in by the railroad officials and the Business Men's club of San Antonio.

New Orleans, Jan. 26.—Rick Adams, the Texas baseball player, under reserve by the local team, can't be heard from and is causing a lot of uncertainty. Manager Campau has written him, but he is silent. It is said Adams wants to break away from the Pelicans and go to the Texas league.

Great Fire in Ireland.

Armagh, Ireland, Jan. 26.—A great fire broke out here Sunday and ten of the largest warehouses and shops in the center of the town were destroyed. Loss estimated at $300,000. The trade of the town was paralyzed by this destruction.

HELEN GOULD'S IDEA.

Miss Helen Gould, who is probably admired as much as any woman in America for her wisdom, womanliness and philanthropy, recently made the following little speech at an anniversary celebration of the Y. M. C. A. of Washington, D. C., where she was present as a special guest representing the Woman's Auxiliary:

"To some it may seem superfluous and inappropriate that women should be engaged in work for the benefit of man, and yet with the conditions ruling in our country, it seems to be particularly fitting that some of our efforts should be directed toward his welfare. In the United States women are accorded privileges and opportunities that they are given nowhere else in the world. They have greater protection before the law, and many of them have a beautiful leisure, which they highly prize. All these things have come through the chivalry and self-sacrificing labor of our men, and it seems particularly appropriate to me that we should show our appreciation of all we have received by devoting a portion of our time and thought to movements that benefit the men of the country. One of the finest among these is the Young Men's Christian association, which recognizes not only the physical and intellectual nature, but the spiritual as well, and holds up as an example, the ideal man—Jesus Christ."

The public conscience is being awakened to the fact that the cattle roping contest is a brutal sport and should be discontinued. The cattlemen oppose it also and claim that heretofore roping has only been resorted to in cases where an animal could be controlled no other way. There is no more excuse for stretching a steer for sport than there is for killing a bull.

The presence of negro women in evening dress at the president's reception has given Washington society and the country in general another severe shock. The president has a right to choose his own associates, but he should warn other people by superscribing his invitations with "No color line." His affinity for the negro, under the cloak of officialism, is getting to be pretty well known, however, and people who will not tolerate social equality are apt to be pretty scarce around the white house as long as he is the encumb(er)ent.

McKinneyites will build a cotton mill. At a recent meeting they decided to "proceed with the work." Several of the leading business men of the city expressed their willingness to subscribe $5000 worth of stock each. Good for McKinney. Let the timely work of making opportunities go on.—Galveston News.

Bryan can get a cotton mill that way and only that way. If the men who own the town and the men who do the business want it bad enough to get together and go to work for it, we'll get it. If the present proposition is not satisfactory others can be had for the asking. The Eagle believes the thing for Bryan to do is go in for manufacturing enterprises now and secure all the advantages of growth in population and volume of business that will naturally accrue to the first town in this section of the state branching out on broad lines of industrial development.

Notwithstanding the recent decision of a Missouri judge that the mule is a wild and ferocious and altogether unreliable quadruped and that the owner is liable for any damages he may inflict on employes, Victor Smith, in the New York Press, from the standpoint of a close acquaintance, says: "A mule has twice as much sense as a horse. I have shaved many a mule's tail and never had a hoof raised against me. It matters not how vicious the animal may be at other times, and there is no business like the business end of a mule, it will humbly, sedately and patiently permit you to remove every hair from its candal appendage. Educate a plow mule to walk in the furrow and it will never step out. Educate a horse to do the same and it will depart from it at every opportunity and require to be flogged back. A mule is a fine guard at night, while a horse sleeps. A mule is as good a judge of human nature as a baby or a dog. A horse will make up with anybody. A mule never forgets. A horse has but a short memory. A mule never gets familiar. A horse does."

DIPLOMATS TOGETHER

Minister Bowen Confers With Foreign Representatives.

PROGRESS PLEASING.

American Ambassador Expresses His Satisfaction at the Manner in Which the Negotiations Are Going On.

Washington, Jan. 26.—A long conference between Minister Bowen and Sir Michael Herbert, the British ambassador, followed by further conferences between Sir Michael, Signor Mayor Desplanches, the Italian ambassador, and Count Quadt, the German charge d'affaires, indicated diplomatic activity in Washington Sunday over the Venezuelan situation. All the negotiators decline to discuss the results of Sunday's meeting, but general statements by them that the situation warrants hope of early relief is significant of what has been accomplished in the last forty-eight hours.

By this time the London, Berlin and Rome foreign offices are in possession of Mr. Bowen's third proposition stating the nature of the guarantee he is prepared to offer for Venezuela, if this initial request is complied with and the blockade raised at once. Strict reticence is maintained by all the negotiators as to the nature of this guarantee and until the joint reply of the powers is received this will not be disclosed. Count Quadt has been advised by the German foreign office of the reasons for the bombardments of the San Carlos forts. This explanation agrees with that cabled by the Associated Press from Berlin.

Minister Bowen and the state department are greatly impressed with the attitude of the representatives in Washington of the allies throughout the present negotiations.

While acting at all times under instructions from their foreign offices, they have expedited matters considerably by their straight forward manner of dealing with Venezuela's representative. This fact has especially appealed to the Washington officials, who, while not participating in the preliminaries, are vitally interested in their results.

Although Germany is sending a special envoy here to conduct the negotiations for her, Minister Bowen has taken occasion to express his absolute satisfaction with the manner in which Count Quadt has represented his government.

The point was made by Mr. Bowen and by an official of the Washington government that the activity and judgment of Germany's representative has done much to aid in bringing about an ultimate solution of the trouble.

EIGHT THOUSAND.

That Number of Persons Estimated to Have Heard Rev. Sam Jones. Dallas, Jan. 26.—Before an audience estimated at 8000 persons Rev. Sam P. Jones spoke Sunday night in the open air near the opera house. The address was to have been delivered in the latter building but the immense crowd clamoring for admission caused the management to fear that their property would be damaged. Mr. Jones spoke from a buggy. On Friday night while lecturing at Turner hall the lights went out and Mr. Jones stated that he would return Sunday and make an address on the pending prohibition election in Dallas county. The speaker said he thought this not an opportune time to have a local option election in this county. He stated that at some future time he would return to Dallas with a large tent large enough to hold 15,000, "and there will be blood and hair, and the ground tore up for fifty miles around Dallas, and Dallas will be so dry after the fracas that fellow can't spit."

"If you enter into a fight now and get licked bad you will hurt and harm the cause all over the state, and we all know that there is a tidal wave of temperance rolling over Texas, such as the oldest inhabitants never saw before."

While Mr. Jones was speaking the opera house manager was finally prevailed on to open the doors and about 1500 entered, but the speaker expressed himself as too hoarse to further hold forth.

Several people were slightly injured by the surging mass and pickpockets pinched a watch and some cash. At his hotel Sam Jones was heard to say:

"I want to say that this audience was one of the most remarkable in size, in order and in attention that I ever saw together, in building or outside of one. After I was about two-thirds through speaking Mayor Cabell came up and said the opera house was full of people, and that they were waiting for me. But I was talking to 8000 men outside and could not leave them to go to 1500 inside. After I was through I was too hoarse to speak inside the building."

MISS MONIE BOWEY,

No. 38 Perry Street,

DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. I have never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

Miss Monie Bowe.

Wine of Cardui makes women more womanly by curing their weakness and making them stronger. Wine of Cardui cured Miss Bowe. As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for yourself, your sister, your daughter or your mother? Can you think of a more acceptable present to give your friend than a bottle of this medicine which will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is to rid yourself of this pain. If your daughter, mother, sister or friend is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

Wine of Cardui is adapted to women at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her strength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small cost.

Your druggist will sell you a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Secure the medicine today. Take it in the privacy of your home. Relief will come to you as surely as you take it.

WINE OF CARDUI is one medicine that should always be kept on hand in every home for immediate use when female weakness first makes its appearance. Miss Bowe's painful and dangerous accident would not have resulted so seriously had she taken Wine of Cardui promptly.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Washington, Jan. 26.—In the senate
Saturday Senator Spooner defended the action of the president in discontinuing the postoffice at Indianola,

VELASQUO BANISHED.

Vice President of Bolivia Has to Leave
His Country.

Lapaz, Bolivia, Jan. 26.—At noon
Saturday First Vice President Velasquo was banished under an executive decree for an indefinite period. A police patrol conducted him to the Peruvian frontier. The reason for this action was, that Vice President Velasquo, being a leader of the opposition, could not assume the presidency without creating political disturbances. The second vice president, Dr. Anibal Capriles, will assume the presidency when President Pando goes.

HIGHWAYMAN SLAIN.

Notorious Kentucky Desperado Meets His Death at Middlesboro.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 26.—Henry Cummings, a notorious highwayman of the mountains, met death from ambush before daybreak here Sunday on one of the principal streets. James Adley Turner, who was walking with him, was shot in the arm. The assassins are unknown. It is common report that Cummings killed John Gorham, president of the United Mine Workers, two years ago; Greenwood Ward, soon afterward, and also Branham Elam, a Kentuckian, while the deaths of others are generally attributed to him, so it is almost impossible for officers to get a clue as to the assassins.

THE ANNUAL EVENT OF TWO NATIONS

Yaqui-George Washington The "Laredo's"

Some years since the citizens of Laredo, Texas and New Laredo, Mexico, conceived the idea of fittingly celebrating George Washington's Birthday (February 22) by suitable "Mexican-American" fiestas and parades, and from a small source this has grown to a MAGNIFICENT ANNUAL EVENT unsurpassed in its splendid surroundings and interesting particulars by anything of a similar nature.

International in its character, located on the border line between the Great Republics, occurring at a season of the year when business cares press lightly, and at a time when weather conditions in that locality are ideal, this event offers unsurpassed inducements to the pleasure seeker.

This year the festivities, will consist of two days continuous festivities, February 22nd and 23rd, and the program, which is very elaborate, will comprise many new and interesting features among which may be mentioned Famous Spanish Bull Fights, Grand Cattle Roping Contests, torchlight parades, embodying typical Mexican and Indian features. Naval fire works, Sham Battle and Capture of the city by the Indians, Military drills and display Evolutions, Historical Pageants and Trades Display, Flower carnival, band and musical contests, etc.

For this occasion low excursion rates will be in effect to Laredo, also for the benefit of those who desire to see more of Mexican life and customs, arrangements have been made for sale of excursion tickets to MONTEREY, MEXICO with ten (10) day's limit, permitting stop-over at Laredo in order to witness the International celebration.

DENTISTS OCCUPATION TAX.

Bill Repealing the Measure Was Warmly Discussed in the House.

Austin, Jan. 26.—The house considered the bill repealing occupation tax on dentists. An amendment was adopted including lawyers in the exemption and caused hot discussion. The house adjourned with the amendment pending.

Soon after the house met the door-keeper was instructed to keep outsiders out of the hall in accordance with the rule adopted Saturday excluding all visitors. This caused much discussion and it was finally decided that members issue cards to friends. The rule prohibiting smoking on the floor of the house will be also enforced.

A bill was introduced providing for creation of the office of secretary of agriculture and carrying an appropriation of $150,000; also a bill to prohibit selling pool races except on day of races.

TO APPOINT TEN.

Governor Lanham Will Appoint That Many to Good Roads Convention.

Austin, Jan. 26.—Governor Lanham appointed ten delegates from Texas to the International Conference of Good Roads, to be held in Detroit, Feb. 13 and 14.

The railroad commission issued a notice for a hearing Feb. 17 to consider a proposition to adopt a scale of charges to be made by the railroads on cars entirely or partially loaded.

Cliff A. Adams and C. J. Brady, two new penitentiary inspectors, qualified and received commissions from the state department.

BLOCKADE RAISING.

Written Declarations Have Been Passed Between Bowen and Ministers.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—Written declarations regarding the raising of the blockade at Venezuelan ports have been exchanged between Minister Bowen and representatives of Great Britain, Germany and Italy. In the declarations representatives of the European powers promised to consent to immediate raising of the blockade as soon as the agreement is concluded between them and Mr. Bowen embodying the conditions laid down by the powers. These chiefly relate to guarantees to be furnished by Venezuela, which offered a portion of customs revenue at La Guayra and Porto Cabello. These measures are more in the nature of a precaution to prevent the loss of the present treaty in case the senate does not ratify it this week. It is hoped by the Washington government that it may not be necessary to transmit to the senate the protocol.

STOKER KILLED.

His Death Was Brought About by the Explosion of a Boiler.

La Guayra, Jan. 26.—An explosion of one of the boilers on the Zumbador, one of the Venezuelan warships captured by the British naval forces on Friday night, killed the stoker.

British cruiser Charybdis, torpedo boat destroyer Rocket, and Zamora, flying the British flag, arrived here Sunday. After a short stay the Charybdis and Rocket left La Guayra for an unknown destination.

The Italian cruiser Calo Alberto sailed during the night.

The warships in the harbor are the Tribune, Zamora and Restaudador.

Said to Be Satisfactory.

London, Jan. 26.—It is learned by a representative of the Associated Press that Great Britain and Germany have informed their representatives at Washington that they consider Minister Bowen's proposals regarding Venezuela's guarantees as a satisfactory basis for further negotiations.

BOOTH'S MISSION.

Part of it Is Said to Be to Locate Four Colonies in the South.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 26.—Arrangements have been made to give General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, and party a splendid reception when they arrive here. The general lectures at the auditorium. He will be introduced by the mayor. Salvation Army workers from several southern states are here to attend the meeting. It is stated that one object of his southern tour is to select locations for four colonies in which to place persons who wish to leave the overcrowded districts in the large cities. Atlanta will offer land for one colony, and probably another tract will be offered near Chattanooga.

Questioned Authority.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Senator Morgan, chairman of the inter-oceanic canal committee, offered in the senate a resolution questioning the credentials of Thomas Herran, charge d'affaires of Colombia, who recently signed with Secretary Hay the isthmian canal treaty. The senate went into executive session to consider it.

TELLER WINS.

He Receives the Fifty-One Votes of the Democratic Members.

Denver, Jan. 26.—The Democratic members of the Colorado legislature in joint session Saturday afternoon elected Henry M. Teller United States senator from Colorado for the ensuing term of six years, beginning March 4. Representative Madden, who disappeared Saturday as soon as Representative Kelly was found, was located at his home. It was announced that he was critically ill, and that the attending physician gave orders that no one be allowed in his room. However, the senate instructed the sergeant-at-arms to bring Madden to the capitol, and he was conveyed there in a carriage. He was slightly ill from a cold. Madden's presence was absolutely essential to make the joint session contain fifty-one votes and an election without him would have been impossible. As soon as Madden arrived, Teller was elected, receiving fifty-one votes. Senator Teller, who was in an ante-room, was notified by a committee of his re-election and repaired to the senate chamber, where he made a speech thanking them for the honor conferred upon him and declaring that his election was legal.

SENATOR TELLER.

The latest Republican scheme is to have the house recognize the rump Republicans and go into joint session and elect a Republican to the senate. In view of the Democratic action this plan will probably be carried out. It is announced that neither Governor Peabody or Secretary of State Cowie will sign the credentials of either Teller or the Republican who will be elected by his party to be senator. This throws the entire matter in the United States senate for adjudication.

SENATORIAL STATUS.

Senator Teller Will Take It to the Senate if Necessary.

Denver, Jan. 26.—Henry M. Teller, who was elected for his sixth term in the United States senate Saturday in a joint legislative session, in which only Democrats participated, left the city Sunday for his country place at Grand Junction. Governor Peabody, who went to Canyon City to spend Sunday at home, was a passenger in the same train. The two men met in the train and Governor Peabody extended congratulations to the senator.

"My election, I feel sure, was perfectly legal and regular," said Senator Teller, in conversation with friends, "for I succeeded in getting the majority vote of both houses. I am entitled to a certificate from the governor and expect it, but if I fail to secure the governor's certificate I shall be able to take my case before the senate nevertheless."

When asked if he would sign a certificate of election for Senator Teller, Governor Peabody replied: "I will cross that bridge when I come to it."

D. B. Fairley, chairman of the Republican state committee, whose resignation has been demanded by a vote of the majority of the committee because of his opposition to the candidacy of E. O. Wolcott for the senatorship has given out a statement declaring that the Republicans will not recognize Teller's election. "In my opinion," he said, "the election was illegal and no attention will be paid to it by the state central committee or either faction of the Republicans in the house or senate."

WOLCOTT WITHDRAWS.

Declares That Senator Teller Has Been Legally Elected.

Denver, Jan. 26.—Former Senator E. O. Wolcott, candidate for United States senator of the "stalwart" wing of the Republican party, has announced his withdrawal from any further contest, and urged the people of Colorado to accept the re-election of Senator Teller by the joint session of the Democratic senators and representatives. The announcement was made in a signed statement in which Wolcott charges certain Republican leaders, associated with the anti-Wolcott forces in the Republican ranks, with treachery, deliberate and continuous, although he disposes of others of the anti-Wolcott partisans by characterizing them as "dupes" of the main conspirators. He refers to the refusal of the anti-Wolcott members of the house to unseat the Democratic members from Arapahoe county and calls it "a crime against the Republican party and an injustice." Wolcott declares that Lieutenant Governor Haggott when he withdrew from the senate chamber and, with less than a dozen senator whose seats were undisputed, organized another senate, was assured of support by his associates, in the state government which support "fell away from him," however. He pays high tribute to Senator Teller's integrity and ability.
